The diagram illustrates the eight steps of international trade, arranged in a horizontal sequence. Each step is represented by a circular icon and a label below it. The steps are: Inquiry (top left), Details Confirm (bottom left), Contract (top second), Receive Payment (bottom second), Production (top third), Loading (bottom third), Transport (top right), and Receiving (bottom right). The icons depict various trade activities: an email icon for Inquiry, people at computers for Details Confirm, a handshake with a contract for Contract, a person with a stack of money for Receive Payment, a factory for Production, a forklift loading a container for Loading, a cargo ship for Transport, and a person moving boxes for Receiving.
