

A circular wreath made of dark, textured material, possibly twigs or wire, is displayed against a white, textured wall. The wreath is densely decorated with numerous artificial eggs in three colors: light blue, lime green, and off-white. Interspersed among the eggs are several dark green, serrated leaves. The eggs are arranged in a somewhat random pattern around the circle, with some appearing to be nestled within the leaves. The overall effect is a festive, spring-themed decoration.
